

POKHARA UNIVERSITY

Level: Bachelor
Programme: BCSIT
Course: English

Semester: Fall

Year: 2024
Full Marks: 100
Pass Marks: 45
Time: 3 hrs.

Candidates are required to answer in their own words as far as practicable. The figures in the margin indicate full marks.

Group A: Very Short Answers Questions

Attempt any ten of the following questions: [10×2=20]

1. What are the communicative skills of language? Why are they significant?
2. Use the following idioms in sensible sentences.
(once in a blue moon, hit the sack, break the ice, over the moon)
3. Why is a minute known as a form of note-taking?
4. Differentiate between verbal and non-verbal communication.
5. Change the following sentences as suggested in the brackets.
 - i. John is writing an email now. (into passive voice)
 - ii. The director and producer.....arrived at the spot. (have/ subject-verb agreement)
6. Why is ethical integrity important in academic writing?
7. Write about the significance of referencing and citations in an academic research paper.
8. What is meant by SQ3R reading technique?
9. Combine the following sentences using the words given in brackets.
 - i. He works fast. He never makes a mistake. (even though)
 - ii. It was raining. We still went to the park. (in spite of)
10. Use the correct tense of the verbs in brackets.
 - i. Last night I (lose) my keys. So I stayed in my friend's home.
 - ii. I (lose) my keys. Can you help me look for them?

Group B: Medium Length Answers Questions

Attempt any five questions. [5×10]

11. Peter Drucker says, "The most important thing in communication is hearing what isn't said." Reflect on how listening skills help in understanding both the spoken words and the non-verbal cues in technical discussions and presentations.
12. Write a job application for the position of "Software Development Intern" at a local IT company. In your application, cover the following points: Introduction, Qualification and Skills, Willingness to learn and closing.
13. Suppose, in recent months, your company staff have not been punctual in reporting for work. The general manager has taken note of the worrying trend and asked you, (the HR executive) to prepare a sample memo. Please develop a model.

14. What do you mean by plagiarism in academic writing? How can we avoid plagiarism from a research article or report?
15. What is active listening? Describe some of its key characteristics and explain the benefits of practicing active listening.
16. Write down the basic strategies to improve pronunciation, intonation and fluency in spoken English.

Group C: Long Analytical Answers Questions

Attempt any two questions. [2×15]

17. "Artificial intelligence (AI) has transformed industries and reshaped the way we work, bringing both opportunities and challenges. As AI-powered automation becomes more advanced, many traditional jobs are at risk of becoming obsolete. Write an essay exploring the job crisis caused by artificial intelligence, with a minimum of 150 words.
18. Language skills like listening, speaking, reading, and writing are essential in both academic and professional settings. Discuss how active listening and paraphrasing help in understanding key ideas during meetings or research. How do summarizing and note-taking improve clarity in written communication? Explain how proper referencing and ethical practices enhance the credibility of your academic work. Additionally, describe how reading strategies, such as making inferences support comprehension and the ability to write clear, high-quality papers. Finally, explain how grammar and structure contribute to the professionalism of your writing.
19. Critically examine the characteristics of memo, letter, and email as forms of professional communication. Highlight the distinct features, tone, structure, and purpose of each, and analyse how these formats are best suited for different organizational contexts.