

Syllabus

The PUMAT exam syllabus includes Verbal Ability, Quantitative Ability, Logical Reasoning, and General Awareness.

Verbal Ability (English):

The Verbal Ability section comprises approximately 40 marks in the PUMAT test. It predominantly focuses on the following topics:

1. Synonyms and Antonyms
2. Idioms and Phrases
3. Prepositions
4. Conditional Sentences (If-Sentences)
5. Tense, Voice, and Narration

Quantitative Ability (Mathematics):

Quantitative Ability accounts for roughly 40 marks in the test, covering a wide array of topics, including:

1. Average
2. Ratio & Proportions
3. Percentage
4. Substitution
5. Defined Functions
6. Set Theory
7. Fractions and Decimals
8. Matrices and Determinants
9. Sequences & Series
10. Unitary Method
11. Indices (Law of Indices)
12. Digits & Age
13. Permutations and Combinations
14. Simple and Compound Interests, Profit and Loss
15. Commission, Taxation, and VAT
16. HCF & LCM
17. Probability (Principle of Counting)
18. Quadratic Equations
19. Statistics
20. Logarithms & Exponents

General Awareness:

General Awareness comprises approximately 30 marks in the test, encompassing topics such as:

1. Current Affairs (Sports, Politics)
2. Current Facts
3. General Knowledge about Nepal
4. Basic Knowledge of Economics, Business, and Accounting

Logical Reasoning (Common Sense or Logical):

Logical Reasoning constitutes 40 marks of the PUMAT exam and typically includes:

1. Coding and Decoding
2. Types of Relations
3. Identifying the Odd One Out
4. Directions
5. Figures & Relationships
6. Logic based on Common Sense